A NARROW ESCAPE

Templars at Temple Hall last Monday evening was a social session. The G. O. C. Council, in which every body present took part, was the feature of the evening and there was the almost total of thirty among the contentants. Miss Marion Cain bore off the trophy—a box of choice confections. Ice cream was next in order and later in the evening the fine musical programme consisted of piano solos by Miss Cain and Miss Malhan, a recital of Herbert's compositions per song, "Friends of Old," by Miss Elvira Sherman, and a violin solo by Miss Carter was applauded in between parlor games and social recreation.

—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Hart are gone to Mr. Hart's old home at Townsend where they will remain a few weeks.

—G. M. Hoyt calls the attention of the public this week to a stock of disinfectants which is worthy their attention.

—Josiah and Milton Tirrell, who make daily excursions down the river for market, arrived at Hummel's Society meeting Wednesday. They were aboard the bridge coming up when a boy on the bridge lost his hat in the water and recklessly started to swim out for it. Knowing the danger of the current and the whirlpools they immediately put about and started for the shore. They were now on the shore.

 GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—The doors of the Grand Opera House were thrown open last Saturday evening and the first season of popular play house was begun. On Monday morning a highly interesting drama and one which will be found applicable to the times will be Walter Seaton's classic drama, The Power of Gold. It is a classic stage creation of modern London and it is being shown in massive stages of walk-around London localities. The reader of Dickens will find many dramatic landmarks.
 The second annual Complimentary Bazaar—tendered to assist with the support of the new building of the Methodist Church, Dore—ended in looked for steps. RESULTS IN DEATH.

Edward Phinney Fires Four Times at Edward M. Shine.

The Victim Was a Respected Firm of the Police—A Story of the Crime.

Boston, Aug. 21.—South Boston was the scene of a tragedy yesterday evening, the victim of which, Edward M. Shine, now lies dead at the city hospital.

Edward Phinney, 30 years of age, a perpetrator of the crime who lived in the tenement above him on West Sixth street, is under arrest and will be arraigned in court this morning on the charge of murder.

Phinney, 30, a well-known Saturday evening after firing at Mr. Shine and escaped, but at an appearance at station at noon yesterday and surrendered himself.

Mr. Shine fell steadily from the moment he reached the hospital, being unconscious most of the time. He talks disconnectedly at intervals about the fire department, the words "bombs, end of the world" being frequently repeated. He was a machinist by trade, but the fire department has always been his hobby.

The doctor hoped Shine would be strong enough yesterday afternoon to undergo an operation, that the bullets might be extracted, but he has not recovered his strength, and the physicians said word that their patient could scarcely live the night out. The crime, however, earlier than was expected.

Story of the Crime.

Various newspaper misstatements have been made concerning the origin of the differences between Shine and Phinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Shine had been credited with a photograph showing two nude figures, to which he had added the names "Mr. and Mrs. Shine." Mr. Shine indignantly denies that young Phinney ever attempted to show him any obscene photograph. She says that her late husband was highly indignant at the display of the photograph, and for more than a week had been expostulating with Phinney over the matter. Saturday night he heard about the photograph and went upstairs to find Phinney in his room.

He found him, but instead of being out, not long after, as Mr. Shine was fastening his shoelaces, preparatory to stepping out, Phinney appeared in the hallway and asked Shine what he wanted.

An animated discussion followed, during which Mr. Shine says Phinney told him that he would give him a photograph of his wife, and that he would give him a photograph of his wife.

After a thorough examination, he directed the patient to be taken to the hospital. Rev. John Hawkins was also summoned. It was feared that Shine was dying, although he was able to utter a few incoherent words to the effect that "Edie Phinney shot me."

Victim Leaves a Family.

Edward Shine, the murdered man, was 35 years old and leaves a wife and a boy and a girl. He had been working for S. A. Wood. His record in the fire department was especially good. He had been in the department for 10 years, and had been promoted to the rank of ladder 5, and later to engine 3 as a call man.

Mr. Shine is a thrifty housekeeper and had a good record. He was a member of the fire department, and had been promoted to the rank of ladder 5, and later to engine 3 as a call man.

Young Phinney carried the revolver away with him, and if he visited Nantasket beach, he believed it was probably at the bottom of the harbor. It is believed Phinney had a serious row with Shine, and that the latter will be brought out by the evidence.

Phinney Held Without Bail.

Boston, Aug. 21.—In the South Boston court yesterday afternoon, Edward M. Shine was charged with the murder of Edward M. Shine on Saturday night. He pleaded not guilty, and was held without bail for trial in the superior court.

Prominent Politician Drove Dead.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 21.—John J. Bell, of Exeter, died yesterday afternoon of a heart attack. He was 65 years of age, and was a prominent politician in the state. He was a member of the state senate, and had been elected to the office of governor in 1890.
